Dear Mr Py Gandhi & Mrs Dp Gandhi

Our records show that your balance of £576.00 is now due.

You are now required to pay this amount in full within seven days of the date of this notice. If you do not, the council will apply to Willesden Magistrates Court to request the issue of a Summons, which will incur additional costs up to £130.00. If a summons is issued, the costs will be added to your account and must be paid.

If you have brought your council tax up to date before the date of the final notice, your final notice can be cancelled by writing to us with proof of your payment and date payment made. Unless this is received the cancellation of this notice cannot be considered. Please see www.harrow.gov.uk/myharrow for information on your bill, payments and other council services.

If you have any queries about this notice then please visit www.harrow.gov.uk/finalnotice. This or the information on the reverse of this notice may answer any questions you may have. Please note that an outstanding query is not grounds for withholding payment as requested on this notice.

NO FURTHER REMINDERS WILL BE ISSUED
